VEREHRUNG DER GELIEBTEN

Rispetto – Verehrung der Geliebten

Summer 2012

Imagine floating around a mystic summer garden and wearing a romantic maxi dress in floral grapefruit coloured lace ... the sun is shining at your skin, the air is clean, the birds are singing ...

Imagine an unplugged, more acoustic lifestyle, a future with organic food and slow cooking, manually powered clothes, folk music and grown up design.

The new collection of the young designer Miriam Herzog, based at Stuttgart Germany, wants to reflect a modest and genuine lifestyle forged by hand and heart.

One of the things about the new season is its simplicity and allure. The feel good factor is given by finest floral lace and jersey made of a modal/cashmere mix.

Intelligently layered gets the woman's wardrobe its charming, young, bohemian, exotic or glamorous look.

A fresh and friendly colour palette like the tasty rosa of a fresh cutted pink grapefruit, a cooler lime green, orange bloom and jade green let us feel this summer is the start of a new beginning love.

Feel the love!

Yours,

Miriam Herzog
